

KUNSTHAUS BASELLAND

House rules

Dear visitors,

Welcome to the Kunsthaus Baselland. We wish you a pleasant visit.

The house rules serve to make your visit to our exhibition spaces as pleasant as possible and are obligatory for all guests. Upon entering the building, you acknowledge our regulations and all other arrangements made to maintain operational safety. The protection of persons and works of art in the building is our main concern:

1. There is a general smoking ban throughout the museum.
2. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. These adults are responsible for the children under their supervision when visiting the exhibition.
3. Food and drink are not allowed in the museum.
4. Animals must not be taken into the museum. Guide dogs are an exception.
5. It is forbidden to touch the works of art. A distance of at least 50 cm must be maintained from the work of art.
6. Coats and jackets must either be worn or left at the cloakroom.
7. For conservational and safety reasons, it is not permitted to enter the exhibition rooms with bulky, wet or pointed objects, such as umbrellas, rain gear, large bags or luggage. Bags up to DIN A4 size (about 20 x 30 cm) may be brought inside. In the case of doubt, the decision lies with the staff.
8. Please use our cloakroom and lockers. We accept no liability for the cloakroom or lockers.
9. Visitors are liable for the damage caused.
10. Taking pictures without a flash, tripod or selfie stick is permitted for private purposes (exceptions are indicated). Large camera bags and interchangeable lenses must be deposited in the lockers. In the case of doubt, the decision lies with the staff. Professional photography and filming require the approval of the Communications Department.
11. In the course of our openings and events, photographs and videos are produced. These are published, among other places, on the Kunstmuseum Basel website and social media channels (Facebook, Instagram, etc.), as well as on third-party media. By participating in the openings and events and entering the Kunstmuseum Basel premises, the persons present grant their consent to free publication, without the need for an express declaration on the part of the persons concerned.
12. The instructions of supervisory staff must be obeyed. Should the house rules or staff instructions be repeatedly violated, future access to the museum may be barred.

Münchenstein, June 2024